The provisions of the 2005 Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act (BAPCPA) require debtors to file forms, documents, pay advices, tax returns, and other pleadings. The BAPCPA states that failure to file necessary documents within forty-five (45) days of filing the bankruptcy petition may result in dismissal of the case.

To ensure compliance with the filing requirements of the BAPCPA, the Court adopts the following procedure.

1. Certificate of Compliance.

In a voluntary case under Chapter 7 or Chapter 13, the debtor may file a "Certificate of Compliance" stating exactly: "All of the information required by 11 U.S.C. §521(a)(1) was filed within 45 days of the petition." This Certificate shall be served on the trustee and on the U.S. Trustee.

2. Prima facie effect.

A Certificate of Compliance filed in accordance with this rule shall be prima facie evidence that the information required by 11 U.S.C. §521(a)(1) was filed within 45 days of the petition.

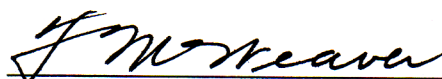

3. Request for order of dismissal.

A request for entry of an order of dismissal under 11 U.S.C. §521(i)(2):

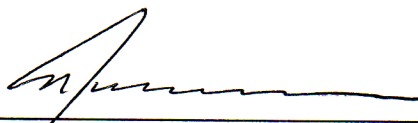

- a. shall be by motion in accordance with Local Rule 9013 and served in accordance with Local Rule 9007;
- b. may be heard on an expedited basis as contemplated in 11 U.S.C. §521(i)(2) only if:
  - (i) no Certificate of Compliance was filed by the debtor; and
  - (ii) a proper request for expedited relief is filed.

This order shall become effective immediately.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 20th day of January, 2006.
